LEAPED FROM WINDOW.

Lieut. Com. Jas. H. Reid, U. S. N., yesterday leaped from a second-story window of the Naval Hospital, in Washington, where for two weeks he has been under treatment, and was seriously injured.

Lieutenant Reid sent his nurse from the room to procure a glass of water and during her absence he jumped headlong from the window, striking on his head on the ground 80 feet below. The officer was picked up in a semi-conscious condition and hurried to the operating room.

The attending surgeon discovered that, aside from lacerations of the face and head, the officer had suffered a serious fracture of the collarbone and concussion of the brain.

Lieut. Reid is 35 years old, a native of Alexandria and son of Mrs. and the late Col. L. W. Reid. He has been on sick leave since October, 1907, having lost his health while on duty in the Philippines and in West Indian waters. His many friends here hope for his speedy recovery.

The following dispatch was received at this office this afternoon from Washington.

Scotched by the cooling hand of his wife upon his fevered brow Lieutenant Commander James H. Reid is resting easily at the Naval Medical School Hospital in a serious condition. All day and most of last night Mr. Reid has leaned over the cot keeping her vigil, and it is this alone that keeps her husband quiet.

The condition of the unfortunate man is puzzling Medical Director Harmon and his assistants, and they frankly admit that they cannot determine his chances for recovery. Ever since Commander Reid plunged from the second story window of the hospital yesterday afternoon he has been completely out of his head and at times would fall into unconsciousness from which he immediately aroused when his wife left his side.

The full extent of the injuries sustained in his leap cannot be ascertained because of the nature of his illness, but it is known that he is suffering from scalp wounds and concussion of the brain and the fracture of his right collar bone. The effect of the blow on the head is being watched with interest by the attending physicians. It is believed by them that the shock may prove a cure for the long sustained delirious condition of the patient, but on the other hand it may permanently affect his brain. These facts are known to Mrs. Reid, but with the fortitude of her sex she patiently hopes and prays for the best. It was her intention, she said, to have her husband removed to a private sanitarium last week, but owing to the inaugural crush this was impossible. She hopes, however, to move him in a few days if his condition will permit.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late James Albion Henderson, who died Friday from an overdose of laudanum taken with suicidal intent, took place from the residence, 913 Gibson street, yesterday afternoon. Rev. C. D. Balla conducted the services.

The funeral of the late Mrs. George Marling, who died Thursday, took place yesterday afternoon from her late home, 903 Duke street. The services were conducted by Rev. W. F. Watson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, assisted by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Church. The interment was in Bethel cemetery.

The remains of Mrs. Matthew Hobson, who died at New Glaz, Md., last Thursday were brought to this city, and the funeral took place this afternoon from the First Baptist Church. Rev. W. F. Watson conducted the services.

The funeral of the late Miss Mary T. Greene, daughter of Mr. John S. Greene, of this city who died at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. Dora A. Jenkins, in Prince George's county, Md. last Friday, took place from St. Mary's Church this morning. The services were conducted by Rev. H. J. Outler.

The funeral of the late Joseph Willhamson, who was killed Thursday last by the cave-in of a tank at Four Mile Run on the electric railway took place this morning from Woodlawn Chapel, Fairfax county.

A DANGEROUS INDIVIDUAL.

George Jones, colored, entered the saloon conducted by Mr. Henry Ochsire on Prince street, near Royal, Saturday night and repaired to a back room where he proceeded to enter into a war of words with some colored women who were seated in the place. The proprietor informed him that he wished to keep an orderly house and requested him either to stop the noise or leave the premises. Jones became very abusive toward Mr. Ochsire when he was ordered out. He left but returned to the front door a little later and asked Mr. Ochsire for an interview. As the proprietor feared him the negro slashed at him with a large knife and but for Mr. Ochsire's thick clothing would have killed him. He then left the premises, but before doing so gave the knife to one of the women he had been talking to, who later turned it over to the police department. Jones is a bad man and has served many terms in the city jail. This morning he was brought before Justice Oston and sentenced to six months in jail.

DR. STEEL'S SERMONS.

Dr. Steel preached at the Washington street M. E. Church South yesterday morning on the "Bible." His subject at the men's meeting at 3:30 p. m. was "Backbone." At night he delivered his great lecture on "The Pioneers of Methodism," before a church crowded with people. Alexandria now knows for itself that Dr. Steel is a great orator. Great interest is manifested in his lectures tonight and tomorrow night in the Young People's Building, on "Greenhorns, Grit and Grace," and "Homelife in Dixie During the War."

Don't miss Dr. Steel's lecture on "Greenhorns, Grit and Grace" tonight.

If you want a pair of $5.00 and $7.00 Oxfords—real samples—for $2.50 go to John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street, this week.

FUN THIS WEEK.

To those who like real good amusement the management of the Opera House has amply provided for their wants this week. It can hardly be said that this is the best show ever seen in this city, but it will so nearly approach this that it would be well to say that it is par excellence and the people will get more for their money tonight and the balance of the week than it has been the pleasure of the management to give. The vaudeville and motion pictures, to place it light, is the finest selection yet offered and as Monday nights are big nights in order to get seated you should go early. This will be the first appearance in this city of Mayo and Mayne, in a refined repertoire of new and up-to-date acts. Miss Abbie Schofield, a clever little soubrette, will please you with character songs and impersonations. Miss Eva Snyder, the versatile comedienne and wooden shoe dancer, will please everybody. Mr. Fleisig, one of the best entertainers on the stage today, has also been secured for this week. He is first class.

CORPORATION COURT.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.] A special grand jury with C. W. Watkins as foreman returned true bills to the following indictments: T. C. Roderick, grand larceny, three counts; Arthur O. Thomas, breaking and entering an office and stealing therefrom a typewriter, the property of the Southern Railway Company; Floyd Galloway, colored, for cutting George Marshall, with intent to maim and kill, &c.; Abe Douglas, colored, for feloniously cutting &c. Isaac Hackley; and James McDaniel for entering the office of W. H. Demaloe, with intent to commit larceny.

The trial of Douglas was fixed for March 17th, and that of Roderick for April 13. Their bonds were renewed and they were released till the dates of the trials.

The grand jury was then adjourned for the term and court adjourned till tomorrow.

AMUSEMENT GALORE

The weather is as fine today as it could possibly be and the evening, it can safely be said, will be delightful just the time when young and old will take advantage of the braiding conditions and stroll out from their domiciles to mingle with the pleasures of our city. And a fact worth remembering is that the Alexandria Amusement Company is prepared tonight to give you as good a show in talking and silent pictures as can be found in any city in the land for the same amount of money. The management promises a rare treat to all who come out tonight. There are many people who find married life one continuous round of pleasure while others see the other side of it. Tonight the Alexandria Amusement Company will show a subject in talking pictures entitled "I'm Glad I'm Married." There will also be other good talking and silent pictures at this house.

DEATH OF JOSEPH HARTBOWER

Death, that unwelcome visitor, has again entered the home of one of the most familiar of Alexandria's faces. Nearly every one in Alexandria from the oldest to the youngest was acquainted with Mr. Joseph Hartbower, the truck gardener. His presence in market was almost as certain as the sun is to make its daily trip over the city. But he is no more. The voice so often heard is still. A place is vacant in the market which can hardly be filled by a man more generally liked. Joseph Hartbower died at his home in Fairfax county, just below this city. He leaves a wife and several children. His funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon. A delegation of members of the Friendship Veteran Fire Association, of which the deceased was a member, will attend the funeral.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

George Jones, colored, charged with disorderly conduct and attempting to cut Henry Ochsire, was sent to jail for six months.

Elijah Taylor, colored, charged with fast driving, was fined $2.50.

Robert Padgett, charged with stealing twelve bottles of beer from Walter Ale, was sent to jail for 30 days.

ALEXANDRIA HOSPITAL.

The 37th annual report of the treasurer, manager, superintendent and auxiliary societies of the Alexandria Hospital has been issued. The treasurer's report shows receipts, $9,930; expenditures, $8,520, leaving a balance on hand of $1,410. During the year $1,988 has been expended on repairs to the property. The total number of patients treated during the year were 408. Among the church donations were: St. Paul's, $264.60; Christ, $113.25; Second Presbyterian, $28.74; Baptist, $18.71; Trinity M. E., $16; M. E. Church South, $13.31; Bethesda, $14.

GOT DOLLAR TO WRECK TRAIN

As was stated in the Gazette, Jeter Tucker and Bernard Mosby were arrested Saturday near Tye River by railroad detectives and lodged in jail at Nelson Courthouse. They are charged with wrecking passenger train No. 35 on Wednesday night. Mosby says Tucker gave him a dollar to break the lock and throw the switch, as he wanted to kill his brother-in-law, George Turner, fireman on No. 35.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

Rev. J. W. Ware, of Calpeper, will preach at St. Paul's Church tomorrow night. The offertory will be sung by Mrs. Sherman Fowler.

Don't miss Dr. Steel's lecture on "Greenhorns, Grit and Grace" tonight.

Have you bought a pair of those $5.00 and $7.00 Sample Shoes for $2.50? If not, go to John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street. Only a few more left.

PERSONAL.

Mr. R. D. Rodgers, who during the past few months has been residing in Fairfax county, has returned to this city.

Dr. Edgar Warfield, of Alexandria, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Moore, of Luck Avenue, last week.

[Richmond Times Dispatch.] M. Helen Gibson, of Upperville, is visiting her brother in this city.

Mr. Harry Robinson, of Sheffield, Ala., who has been on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Robinson, at their home on south Fairfax street, returned to his home today.

Mrs. Martha Pope, of Georgia, is the guest of Mrs. Robert W. Fuller, at her home on Oranoco street.

Mrs. Eleanor Washington Howard has returned after a pleasant visit to relatives in the north.

Mr. Gilbert Baker, of Danville, brother of Mr. Herbert Baker, of this city, who has been here on a short visit, returned to his home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Budheim left today for New York.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA.

The regular monthly meeting of the Institute will be held at the Manassas Agricultural High School tomorrow, Tuesday, March 9, at 10 a. m. and will be presided over by Mr. J. W. Roberts, who resides near Alexandria. Lectures will be given by experts from the Department of Agriculture in Washington and the farmers will be invited to offer suggestions and questions. Prof. J. A. Drake will speak in the forenoon on "Soil Improvement" and in the afternoon on "Commercial Fertilizers." Prof. F. W. Howe will talk on "Preparation for the Spring Crops" in the forenoon and on "The Introduction of Agriculture into our Public Schools" in the afternoon. The girls of the domestic science class will serve lunch at noon. The Institute will adjourn at 4 p. m.

A GOOD SHOW.

It is the motto of the Elite Company to give its patrons the best regardless of expense. Tonight they will present one of the finest shows ever seen. Special pictures tonight: "In the Government Service," "Bashful Young Man," "The Hunchback" and "Mr. Pynhead." By special request will repeat "The Story of Beethoven's Master Piece." This is a beautiful picture and received great applause Saturday night when presented for the first time. All lovers of music should see this picture. Special added attraction this week will be Mr. Wm. Greenburg in singing and talking. He comes highly recommended and the Elite Co. promises every one who attends the show tonight to be repaid many times the price of admission.

A PATHETIC CASE.

Among those indicted by the grand jury of the Corporation Court this morning was T. C. Roderick, former manager of the electric light works, of this city, who is charged with the grand larceny of moneys belonging to the company. Roderick with his wife and little child sat together in the court room when the grand jury returned and presented the indictments and elicited the sympathy of all present.

CAMERON CLUB.

On tomorrow, Tuesday, night, at 8 o'clock, Mr. C. J. Blanchard, of the Reclamation Service, will give the third of the series of illustrated lectures under the auspices of the Cameron Club, at Christ Church Parish Hall. "Reclaiming the Arid Lands of the West" is a fascinating subject and there is no one more thoroughly versed in that wonderful work than Mr. Blanchard.

FIRE.

The alarm of fire about 3 o'clock this afternoon was caused by the discovery of a blaze in the cellar of George H. Ramey & Son's printing office, on the south side of Royal street, between King and Prince. Some paper was burned and the lower floors of the building damaged before the firemen succeeded in subduing the flames.

ENGINEER RECOVERING.

A dispatch from Lynchburg says Engineer Herbert Fairfax, of Alexandria, who was injured in the wreck on the Southern, near Tye river, last Wednesday afternoon, is improving nicely at the St. Andrews Home there, where he has been under treatment since the accident.

EXTENDING GAS PIPES.

Gas pipes are being distributed on King street extended beyond the Union Station and into the streets of Rosemont, adjoining this city. These pipes will be installed under the supervision of the city superintendent of gas, as soon as all the pipe has been distributed.

DEATH OF MRS. HENDERSON.

Mrs. Lizz Henderson, wife of Mr. Hezekiah Henderson, died this morning at her home, on north Alfred street. The deceased, besides her husband, leaves one child.

Don't miss Dr. Steel's lecture on "Greenhorns, Grit and Grace" tonight.

59c Shantung Pongees

AT 39c YARD.

Worth 59c That's what we sold them for last season. Bought big stock of undyed goods this spring at our own price. Splendid weight. Very strong. Will wear like iron. The very thing for the semi-tailored dresses and 3-piece suits of the season. Come early for these. You know they'll go fast. The assortment of shades is likely to be broken early. Here's the list:

Natural, Tan, Navy, Green, Gray, Gun Metal, Old Rose, Raspberry, Porcelain, Café, Black, White.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

The work of removing the court of honor, held in Washington during the inauguration exercises, to this city was commenced today.

Belle Eleanor, infant daughter of Dr. Walter and Mrs. Bessie Pierpoint, died at her parents' residence, 116 north St. Asaph street, last night.

Charles B. Lenoir died in Norfolk Tuesday. His remains were forwarded to Washington in which city the funeral took place this afternoon.

A baseless rumor was circulated this morning to the effect that the dead body of a colored man had been found near Salloh Church, on upper Duke street.

The young ladies of Capt. G. W. Keys' Sunday School class of the M. E. Church South will give an oyster supper at the Young People's building, on Thursday evening next from 6 to 10 o'clock.

You can go as far as you like with some people. With others you've got to be very careful. It all in the way we are brought up. Mr. Elanin recently said to his son, "Mien boy, if at first you don't succeed, fail. If you fail again, don't give up. Now wouldn't it be better if he had said, 'My boy, if at first you don't succeed, simply try again?'"

Oysters in all styles. Fried Clams every day 30c, per dozen. Clam soup, Monday, Wednesday and Friday. C. H. Zimmerman, Market Space.

Be sure to hear Dr. Steel in "Greenhorns, Grit and Grace." Young People's Building tonight. Admission 25 cents.
